Continue across the scenic Rickenbacker Causeway to the tropical island of Key Biscayne, an elegant seaside community incorporated in 1991 and known for its palm-lined parks, sweeping bay views, and relaxed coastal charm. Also visit the colorful Cuban heart of the city, Little Havana to see the lively streets, domino parks, and authentic cafés. Enjoy a narrated Shark Valley Tram Tour through the wetlands. Spot native wildlife such as alligators, wading birds and turtles, take in sweeping views and capture photos of this unique landscape. Then enjoy an exhilarating Everglades Airboat Ride. Skim across the sawgrass in water as low as 6" as your guide shares fascinating stories about the region. Keep an eye out for wildlife like alligators and large birds such as egrets and wood storks. Late afternoon return to your hotel in Ft. Lauderdale for an evening at your own pace.
